

BOOK COVER CONTEST

based on the book:

Inside My Imagination by Marta Artaega

(This book is available on Epic! If your homeroom does not use this tool regularly, please visit <https://www.getepic.com/students> and use the class code created by Mrs. Parnell: yzh2951 Choose any book character's name to read, and search for the title listed above. This title is available for you to view from 7am to 4pm every weekday.)

In this book, a child uses her imagination to become whoever she wants to be. Your challenge is to create a book cover that shows your imagination! If you were to write a book about the story inside your mind, where would you take us, and what would the cover of the book look like?

RULES TO QUALIFY AND GUIDELINES

- Use an 8.5 x 11 sheet of white paper
- Create an original book cover and title: no copying or tracing an existing one.
- Be original and creative! Bring your special creation to life on your cover!
- Writing your name on the front will disqualify your entry.
- Entries should be scanned or photographed and emailed to juliagreenrat2021@gmail.com by Monday, February 1st!
- In the subject line, please put the student's first name, last name, teacher. For ex. John Smith - Henderson.

All participants will receive bonus credits!

Beginning Friday 1/22, you can use Beanstack through Clever to log the Book Cover activity badge, OR, use your 190# and birthdate (MMDD) from this link:

<http://mnpsjuliagreenes.beanstack.org>

*The winner from each grade will receive a prize at the Closing Assembly! *******